Stamas Shares District Treats with Senate

Time-honored tradition of first bill passage

LANSING – Participating in the time-honored tradition of featuring district delicacies following the passage of a member’s first bill, Senator Tony Stamas, R-Midland, served a variety of local products from the 36th District to the Michigan State Senate.

“The 36th District has raised the bar on bringing local flavor to the Senate,” said Stamas. “I thank and appreciate each and every one of the district businesses who participated.”

The senators and staff were treated with root beer from Big Buck Brewery, Gaylord; ice cream, to make root beer floats, from Pizza Sam’s, Midland; chocolate elephants and donkeys from The Village Chocolatier, East Tawas; fresh baguettes from The Flour Garden, Harrisville; Michigan maple syrup, Dellar’s Sugar Shack, Harrisville, and wine from Stoney Acres Winery, Alpena.
